Women With Disabilities Telling Our Stories

Other people tell stories about women with disabilities. They aren't always the stories we want other people to hear about our lives.

What do you want to tell the world about yourself?

How do you want to tell it?

We have funding from the Disability Services Commission to run a series of arts workshops and hold an arts show in December showcasing the creative talents and stories of women with disabilities in WA.

Come to WWDWA Inc's July Monthly Forum and meet Arts Workshop Facilitator Jule Japhet Chiari to find out more information about WWDWA Inc’s Art Project.

Sunday 31 July

2-4 pm

Women's Health and Family Services
227 Newcastle Street, Northbridge

RSVP for the forum by Monday 25 July to 9244 7463 or rayna@wwdwa.org.au, with any access or dietary requirements.

You can contribute an already created piece to the project, writing, visual art, photography, film, song, dance.

Or learn new creative techniques in workshops run by Jule in,

Creative Writing
Visual Arts, Film and Multimedia
Movement and Dance
Voice (song or slam) and Drama (monologue or short play)

Contact Rayna on 9244 7463 or rayna@wwdwa.org.au to sign up to the workshops.

Location and date will be confirmed with participants of each workshop.

More information about the project as well as examples of creative work by women with disabilities will be on our website wwdwa.org.au soon.
